ALDERMEN MEET THIS AFTERNOON

Lighting Proposition to be Considered.

Board Will Also Grant License to Number of Auto Drivers—Number of Other Items Will Come Up and Session Will Likely Last Several Hours—Discussion of Lighting Proposition Will Likely Be Extended.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Board of Aldermen will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the council chamber and in all probability the session will last for several hours as a number of items of business will come up for discussion.

The item of the greatest importance to come up will be the lighting proposition. As stated in yesterday's Telegram the special committee will submit its report, including the report of special Engineer Guildford and the bid of the Public Service Company, together with recommendations by the committee. This report will likely be discussed at length and it is hardly probable that final action will be taken this afternoon. However, the members of the board may be in a position to act.

Another item of more than passing importance will the granting of license to auto drivers. The automobile ordinance requires that all applicants shall be examined by Commissioner Turner and if he thinks the applicant is competent to drive a car he will issue to such applicant a certificate. This certificate has to be taken before the aldermen and a license is granted, the name of the applicant, together with the license number, to be recorded by the city clerk. As this will be the last meeting of the board before the ordinance goes into effect on Sept. 15, it is likely that fifty or more applications will be acted on this afternoon. Commissioner Turner states that during the last two weeks a large number of the drivers of the city have stood examination. A number of the more careless and incompetent negro drivers have been turned down. The object of the ordinance is to do away with the incompetent drivers and it is believed that the ordinance will be a success. A similar ordinance has been in effect in Charlotte for some time and the auto owners seem well pleased with the provisions.

There are several other matters to come up in addition to the regular routine of business.

CONVICTS DOWN GUARD

Mr. James McDaniel Injured in Scrimmage Wednesday Night Or Yesterday Morning.

News was received here yesterday afternoon that Guard James McDaniel, of Capt. J. W. Tyson's camp, was injured in a fight with two or more of the convicts Wednesday night or early yesterday morning. The report only stated that the guard was hurt. His sister, Miss Lillian McDaniel, 524 South Eugene street, received a message asking her to send for the injured man. He will probably be brought home today.

Sheriff Jones was called up last night and at first he said that he had not heard of the affair, but later recalled that he had heard something about the report. However, he had been so pressed with other matters, he said, that he paid no attention to the report. He was asked if it was not the duty of the superintendent of the camp to report at once such an occurrence to the sheriff and replied that it ought to be done, but the report was made to the county commissioners usually, the superintendent being under the direction of that board. Sheriff Jones said that from what he heard he supposed the prisoners who fought the guard escaped, but he had no definite knowledge to this effect.

Colored A. & M. Opening.

The fall term of the Agricultural & Mechanical College for the colored race, Greensboro, began Tuesday, September the 6th. Fifty-two students matriculated upon the first day. This does not include a number of other students present, waiting to complete their examinations for entrance or for the removal of conditions. This is the largest opening the school has ever had. Students are coming in rapidly, and the indications are that the attendance will be larger than any previous year.

BRILLIANT SOCIAL AFFAIR.

Miss Marguerite Cartland Entertains in Honor of Miss Saza Hendrick Peck Who Will Soon Become a Bride.

Decidedly one of the most unique and one of the most enjoyable social affairs of the week was given yesterday afternoon by Miss Marguerite Cartland, at her home on Asheboro street. The occasion was a china shower given in honor of Miss Saza Hendrick Peck, who on September 15 will become the bride of Mr. Robert Worth Wilson.

About twenty friends of the bride-to-be attended and were received at the door by Mrs. J. G. Lewis, Miss Cartland and Miss Peck. At the library door they were received by Mrs. Leslie Cartland and Miss Martha Mendenhall. Each guest was presented with a hand-painted telegraph blank and requested to write ten words of advice and good wishes, starting the words with the letters in the surnames of the bride and groom-to-be. The telegrams afforded much amusement to the guests and a great deal of advice was wired to the young couple. The second request made by the charming hostess of her guests was equally as interesting and was entered into by the guests with zest. A piece of linen was provided for each and they were requested to hem a dish towel for the bride. After all the efforts had been duly passed upon by competent judges, Miss Johnsie Starr's masterpiece was awarded the prize, a pair of embroidery scissors.

The guests were then ushered into the dining room which was tastefully decorated in red and white, dahlias being used to carry out the color scheme. The table, at which a course of ices was served, was most artistic. In the center, resting on a large mirror, was a white slipper filled with bride's roses, around which was banked white clematis. Suspended from the chandelier was a wedding bell of white roses.

The refreshments were double hearts of cream, across which the word "Love," was inscribed, cake and pink and white mints.

A bride's book was introduced in which many tokens of friendship and love were written, all being illustrated by pictures clipped from various newspapers and magazines.

The crowning event of the afternoon came when Master Murray White entered the room with a small bow and arrow which he aimed at a large heart-shaped box, which occupied one corner of the dining hall. The arrow on striking the box ignited a fuse that blew the lid off, and when the honoree gazed within she found a large number of pieces of beautiful Japanese china that the guests had brought as a pre-nuptial gift.

IN HONOR OF MISS LAMPKIN.

Miss Marion St. Sing Entertains in Honor of Her Guest.

Miss Marion St. Sing entertained a number of friends at a party at her home on Spring Garden street in honor of Miss Louise Lampkin, of Salisbury, who has been visiting her for a few days. After the fortunate guests of the young hostess had enjoyed themselves with varieties of games, they were ushered into the dining hall where they were served with delicious cream, frost, cakes and fruits.

Among those who enjoyed Miss St. Sing's hospitality were Misses Myrtle Hanner, Florence Gray, Mary Campbell, Elizabeth Campbell, Louis Lampkin, of Salisbury; Messrs. L. T. Hanes, H. W. Hunt, Will Sadler, Harry Sadler, Lee Ralls and Tom Ellington.

The Mosquitoes Plentiful.

There appears to be an unusually large crop of mosquitoes this fall and the long billed insects are disturbing the slumbers of a large number of Greensboro citizens. The rainy spell last week gave the 'skeeters a golden opportunity to increase in numbers and consequently great droves were bred, the hatching process being greatly aided by the sultry weather of the past few days.

Mr. Klapp is a Live One.

Rev. S. B. Klapp is resting up at home this week after 6 weeks' hard work in revival services, baptizing about 25 into the church per week. On the fourth Sunday he dedicated a new Christian church in Moore county, N. C., in the presence of a large congregation. Mr. Klapp has built two new Christian churches and has the third one going up since last conference.

Building Permits.

Building Inspector Milton yesterday issued two permits for buildings. One was to D. E. Thomas for a $500 house on East Washington street, and the other was to S. S. Miles for a garage in College place.

THE FIRE ALARM FAILED TO WORK

And Raleigh Firemen Were Delayed.

One Residence Destroyed and Another Badly Damaged by Flames Yesterday—Raleigh Citizens Stirred Over the Fire Conditions—Col. S. W. Cooper Succeeds Late Col. Hollingsworth as Paymaster General.

Raleigh, Sept. 8.—The residence of William Day on Swain street was destroyed along with all his furniture and the residence of Arthur Belvin was badly damaged by a fire that started early this morning and gained headway through failure of the fire alarm system to work properly. Citizens are considerably stirred up over the fire department and water conditions and a general overhauling with probably a full paid department is impending. Insurance interests are considerably stirred over the situation.

Adjutant General J. F. Armfield today commissioned Col. S. W. Cooper, of Fayetteville, paymaster general to succeed Col. Hollingsworth, who lost his life in the recent terrible automobile collision in Richmond. Col. Cooper has been all along a member of the personal staff of Gov. Kitchin.

The resolutions of the Forsyth County Medical Society calling on the medical societies of the state to join in a movement to have the right of the North Carolina Medical Society to issue diplomas taken from it in consequence of the attack on the college by the findings of the Carnegie Foundation Fund committee were taken up by the Wake Medical Society today and the matter left open to a later date. The resolution and the reply by the faculty committee were heard. Interests of the college were championed by nearly all the physicians present. However the attendance was small. Some members express the view that the society will not take any action at all, thinking it best to "stand pat."

Hon. James R. Young is reelected chairman of the Democratic executive committee for the Fourth Congressional district in which Congressman E. W. Pou is the nominee to succeed himself in Congress and the announcement is made by Chairman Young that he is authorized by the committee and by Mr. Pou to arrange for any joint canvass that may be desired by whoever the Republicans put in the field against him. Mr. Young says that while he is satisfied that Mr. Pou's reelection will be by a majority even much in excess of that of the campaign two years ago, he proposes that this campaign shall be just as strenuous as possible especially in order that there may be the strongest possible showing of the strength of his candidate and of Democracy in this district.

COMMISSIONER YOUNG'S REPORT

For Past Year Just Gotten Out.

Shows That Nearly a Quarter of a Million Dollars Was Paid Into Treasury During Year—An Increase of $12,000—Filled With Information of Value—Street Car Company Assumes Liability For Recent Accident.

Raleigh, Sept. 8.—Insurance Commissioner James R. Young has just issued his report for the year 1910 and the report is the most complete one ever gotten out by the department. It is handsomely gotten up and contains 852 pages giving in detail the work of the department during the past year.

The report shows that the department collected and paid into the state treasury the sum of $246,566.89 last year which was an increase of $12,098.26 over the year ending 1909. The first year of the department, 1898, only $84,876.28 was collected and paid into the treasury. The receipts of last year were derived from the following sources: Taxes on gross receipts, $178,342.55; licenses from companies, $42,902.02; fees and licenses for subagents, $25,322.32.

Twenty-one companies of all kinds were admitted and fifteen stopped during last year.

The report shows the liabilities and assets of all the companies doing business in the state, and in fact, is filled with valuable information about the various companies, and is well worth a careful examination.

The Carolina Power and Light Company, operating the trolley car system here, has directed the H. J. Brown Co. to replace the buggy smashed in the South street collision with the electric car sprinkler and Mr. J. H. Mitchell, who is confined to his home on account of injuries received in the smashup is, it is understood, have his case taken care of by the street car company. This was the accident in which Miss Isabelle Brown had such a miraculous escape from death in that she clung to the dashboard of the smashed buggy as it was dragged nearly a square down the hill by the big sprinkler car while the motorman was vainly trying to stop it after losing control at the moment of the collision. He declared that the switch and brakes of the car were out of order and that was the reason he could not stop the car, but a subsequent careful inspection of the car showed all its appliances in order. So it is conceded that the motorman simply lost his head as the car crashed into the buggy and that with the probably too high down grade speed for so heavy a car with its immense tank of water, caused the long dragging of the smashed buggy with the little lady whose life was so greatly imperiled.

REPUBLICAN MEETING TONIGHT.

Mr. A. E. Holton and County Candidates To Speak In Court House.

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the court house the Republican county candidates will open their campaign. District Attorney A. E. Holton, of Winston, will be the principal speaker, the remarks of the county candidates to be cut short.

Democratic County Chairman Sherrill as soon as he learned that Mr. Holton was to speak sent a letter to Republican County Chairman Worth asking that Mr. Holton divide his time with a Democratic speaker and have a joint debate. The request was refused on the grounds that as the county candidates had declined a joint discussion Chairman Worth saw no reason to reopen the matter by having a joint debate with any speaker.

Rev. Mr. Ware's Nephew Dead.

Rev. W. R. Ware, presiding elder of the Greensboro district of the M. E. church, yesterday received a message informing him of the death of the youngest son of his sister, Mrs. A. E. Alspaugh, which occurred at the home of his parents in Portland, Oregon, Sunday morning. The telegram came to Mrs. Alspaugh's mother, Mrs. Naomi Ware, at Shelby, on Tuesday, but Mrs. Ware did not forward the message to her son until yesterday in order that the marriage of Miss Ware might not be celebrated under a shadow of sadness. The young man died suddenly of heart disease.

Airy & Eastern Railroad asking for a modification of the order of sale of the road was filed before Judge Boyd by Messrs. Wilson & Ferguson. Another "Skin" Game.

Officers McFarland and Hepler last night arrested three young negroes, all old offenders, Jim Byrd, Oscar Caldwell and Henry Stewart charged with gambling. The "sports" had been in the negro national card game of "skin" on lower East Market street and complaint was made against them so the officers took them in. Judge Eure will try them this morning.

Beat Board Bill.

Deputy Sheriffs Wyrick and Hobbs arrested Harvey Brady, a white man, near Doggett's mill Wednesday night and brought him back to the city yesterday when he was tried for beating a board bill at White Oak. Judge Collins who tried the case sent him to jail in default of payment of the judgment given against him.

Mr. Peter Williams has returned to his home in Adell, Ga., after a visit to the home of Mrs. Dr. McDaniel, North Edgeworth street.

FAIR DIRECTORS MET LAST NIGHT

Made Appropriation For The Races.

The Purses Will Amount To Five Thousand Dollars—Twenty-Five Hundred Dollars For Free Attractions—Racing Every Day—Some of the Free Attractions—The Premium List Supply About Exhausted—Midway Attractions.

The directors of the Central Carolina Fair Association met last night in the office of Secretary Garland Daniel. They decided that they will offer for the coming fair $5,000 in purses for the twelve races that will be given during the week. There will be three races every day of the four days of the big fair, the classes to be announced later. The entries that have been made already insure the best racing that the fair people have ever offered.

An appropriation of $2,500 was made for the free attractions, $800 of the amount to be spent on platform shows to be given in front of the grandstand during the races and intermissions between them. Among the feature attractions that will be given free are Madame Sunday, who will loop the loop in an automobile. A race between three balloons, chariot races, bare back riding and Roman standing races.

Mr. Daniel is getting letters from midway people from all over the United States, wanting space for their shows during the coming fair. The midway question is being given the most careful attention and no concern that can not show that it is absolutely clean and refined will be allowed to put up. Mr. Daniel says that the "Soul Kiss" and the "Girl From Rector's" will be barred.

The supply of premium lists has about been exhausted, the demand being so great from people who contemplate making exhibits, and the present outlook shows without doubt that the coming fair will be "bigger, greater, grander than ever" as the circus people say.

MAY BE MURDER

Sam Rankin, the Aged Victim of Levi Richardson, May Not Recover.

The case against Levi Richardson for assault on Sam Rankin last Sunday night in East Greensboro was not tried yesterday morning in Municipal court, the old darkey, Sam Rankin, being unable to attend as the chief prosecuting witness. Richardson was committed to jail to await trial without bond pending the recovery or death of his victim.

Dr. J. A. Byers, the colored physician, furnished the police with a certificate stating that Rankin's condition was such that he could not state when he would be able to attend court. The old man is very near seventy years of age and the wounds that he received from the drunken negro, Richardson, are serious. Dr. Byers, who has examined him, says that the wound is behind the right collar bone near the jugular vein, a stab the full length of a knife blade, at least three and one half inches in depth and about two and a half in length. The victim is very weak being able to sit up only about twenty minutes a day. He received another stab from Richardson that pierced his left cheek. While everything possible is being done for the unfortunate old fellow, complications may arise, causing his death and Richardson will have to answer to the charge of murder.

The Richardson negro is a big gingercake colored fellow, a powerful man, who, when he is in liquor, generally gets into a fight. Sometime ago he was drunk and was himself slashed up considerably by a white man. When sober he is said to be an honest hard working fellow, giving no one any trouble.

Small Wreck.

Yesterday about 12:30 a local freight train from Danville and a switch engine had a collision in the Southern yards, near Sergeant's Foundry, The switch engine was switching a Pullman which was to be attached to train number 21 when the freight collided with it. No one was injured, but a coal car was turned over, another damaged. Both engines and the Pullman were slightly damaged.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandruff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Canthrarides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots.

It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

OUR WOMEN SUPERB.

Young Head of House of Vallombrosa Thinks So, Really.

New York American.

When a young French duke has been graduated from Yale and has subsequently visited this country several times, mingling with the men of the finacial districts, where he has been studying American banking methods, and has been entertained in the most exclusive Fifth avenue homes, he surely is sufficiently well informed on the subject to discuss American men and to know something of our men.

Such a man is the handsome young French Duc de Valombrosa, of Italian name and French citizenship. Yesterday at the Hotel Belmont, the Duke who is on his way to Mexico to look into some mining claims, talked for the New York American. He will return in two months to spend the winter in this city.

"There are perhaps in the world today," said the Duke, "no men better equipped for life—more enthusiastic, more fit mentally and physically, than the young college men and the young business men of America—at the age of 20. Five years later everything that makes them splendid and fine and promising begins to diwndle. They slump off at a tremendous speed and it is amazing to see this sudden deterioration. I have noticed it in many of my classmates of Yale of four years ago. What change has taken place would be hard to define, but it is obviously present.

"But what the American man loses after his callow days the American woman makes up for. She is truly a marvel. She is a superb woman with that indescribable charm and that distinctively American air that makes her recognized the world over—and to her advantage; for I really believe that no women are more courted than the American women. Not because of money necessarily, for people over here seem to forget that there are francs, or marks, or lires, or pounds, left in the old world that haven't passed through the American mints.

"There is too much stress put on the American money valuation of the American woman. I should think your beautiful, gifted women who spend so much of their time abroad would resent the assertion often made by their own countrymen that the foreigners entertain them because their money. It is foolish, for we have had a good many wealthy bourgeoise women in our own land whose money would get them no where socially, and the ordinary uneducated women of your own land with money do not step into the great salons of France or the drawing rooms of England."

In personal appearance this young scion of one of the great European houses is strong and athletic, distinctly handsome and with a firm, square jaw. He has frank brown eyes, talks seriously and with none of the affectations to be found in many of the young "bloods" of Europe. He says that he hasn't any idea of marrying. "No, I do not intend marrying an American girl; in fact, I haven't the slightest idea of marrying at all."

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scale, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

"I never realized how unpopular a left handed man can be until I joined a fishing club," said the man who cannot do much with his right hand. "Socially I was all right, but when we began to fish the rest of the fellows couldn't get far enough away from me. There was another left handed man in the party, and we were shunted upstream, away beyond the best fishing holes. I am a good fisherman. When alone I can manage rod and line as skillfully as the next man, but when I go fishing with a lot of right handed fishermen our lines tangle and we get into a regular muss. I have tried to learn to manage my pole with my right hand, but I haven't made much headway at it; also I have noticed that right handed persons who tried to become ambidextrous could learn to do everything with their left hand better than to fish."—New York Times.

Be sure you are right then go ahead. Don't turn around to see if your neighbors are looking.

Consistency is a jewel we always admire—in other people.

AMUSEMENTS

The sale of seats for Dustin Farnum's engagement at the Grand September 14 opens Monday. Mr. Farnum's vehicle for the present season is "Cameo Kirby," a new play from the pens of Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson, authors of "The Man from Home," which has just closed a run of 70 weeks at the Astor Theatre, New York. It is built around the character of Eugene Kirby, or "Cameo" as he is called, a striking type of Mississippi river gambler of almost a century ago. This character naturally falls to the star and offers much for his stalwart powers of characterization. Throughout the play h is constantly enmeshed in difficulties that accrue from the misinterpretation of a generous act on his part, resulting from an endeavor to uphold the "honor" of his profession. The play abounds in thrilling scenes and effective situations. The element of suspense is most carefully preserved until well on into the last act. Comedy is contributed in large quantities by Kirby and Larkin Bunce, another gambler. Hugh Ford is responsible for the staging of the piece which is under the management of Liebler & Company.

Pittsburg Will Surround the Contributing Editor With Police When He Goes There.

Pittsburg cor. New York Tribune.

Chief of Police Thomas A. McQuaide, announced this evening that in Pittsburg there would be no repetition of the unpleasant encounter Mr. Roosevelt had at Fargo, N. D. McQuaide said tonight:

"There will be a solid line of police from the Union Depot to the Fort Pitt Hotel on Saturday evening, and when Mr. Roosevelt starts from there to the Monongahela House, where he speaks first, we will take care of him with our entire mounted police squad and detectives on foot about his carriage, and later we will continue to the exposition. Coming from the exposition hall at night after he has finished we will throw a guard clear around Mr. Roosevelt.

"I know Mr. Roosevelt does not care for this sort of escort—in fact, is opposed to being placed in a hollow square—but I believe we will do this at this time, anyway. I think the people of Pittsburg wil feel better knowing that Mr. Roosevelt thus late at night is i nthe centre of a hollow square formed by our mounted police."

There is a constantly increasing demand for tickets to see Mr. Roosevelt. Already there have been over 60,000 applications for seats and the hall will seat only 4,000.

TURNER'S AMBITION.

The Great Painter Achieved It by Years of Self Sacrifice.

Turner could not bear to sell a favorite painting. He was always melancholy after such a transaction. "I lost one of my children this week," he would sadly exclaim. At a meeting at Somerset House it was decided to purchase his two great pictures, the "Rise" and the "Fall of Carthage," for the National gallery. A Mr. Griffiths was commissioned to offer £5,000 for them. "A noble offer," said the painter, "a noble offer; but, no, I cannot part with them. Impossible." Mr. Griffiths, greatly disappointed, took his leave. Turner ran after him. "Tell those gentlemen," he said, "that the nation will most likely have the pictures after all." Long before this Turner had matured a purpose which continued to be his dominant idea while life lasted. This was to bequeath to his country a Turner gallery of pictures and to amass £100,000 to build and endow an asylum for decayed artists. It was for this great object that he denied himself all pleasures that cost money, all luxuries. His resolve, once made, could not be shaken. On one occasion he was offered £100,000 for the art treasures locked up in the "den." "Give me the key of the house, Mr. Turner," said a Liverpool merchant, "and here is the money." "No, thank you," replied Turner. "I have refused a better offer." And that was true. By his will he bequeathed £140,000 to found an asylum for poor artists born in England and a magnificent art collection to his country. This latter bequest was, however, coupled with the condition that his "Rise and Fall of Carthage" should be hung in the National gallery between Claude's "Seaport" and "Mill."—London Graphic.

Halley's Comet.

A French scientist declares that Halley's comet was known to the authors of the Talmud long before Halley came into existence. This French scientist quotes from the Talmud: "Two wise men of Palestine, Gambiel and Joshua, made a voyage on the sea. The first had brought with him bread to eat. The second one in addition had brought flour. When Gambiel had eaten all his bread he asked him for flour, saying to him, 'How didst thou know we should be so long on our journey that thou didst bring flour?' To which Joshua did answer: 'There is a very bright star which appeareth every seventy years and which deceiveth mariners. I have thought that perchance it might surprise us during our voyage, lead us astray and thus prolong our voyage on the sea; hence it is that I have provided myself with flour.'"

The Falkland Islands.

The Falkland islands are among the least known and most out of the way corners of the widely scattered British empire. They form a sort of British suburb of the south pole, some 500 miles from the antarctic end of America, Cape Horn. A former governor of the Falkland islands, the late Sir William Robinson, used to say that he would have committed suicide while there if he could have found a tree tall enough to hang himself on.—London Standard.

The fact that Ballinger doesn't have the decency to quit is one of the strongest of reasons why he should be made to quit.

The weather is always up to some curious antic or other. For example, here in September we are having hotter weather than was experienced in either of the standard summer months.

President Taft believes in a little conservation as applied to speech. Ex-President Roosevelt believes in just the reverse and there's the difference in them.

Franklin K. Lane, of the Interstate Commerce Commissioner, declares that the American railroads excel all others in efficiency. That is gratifying indeed. Now let the American railroads apply themselves to the task of becoming the safest as well as the most efficient of railroads.

In Maryland one of the Republican candidates for Congress is seeking to gain favor with the people by declaring that if elected he will vote against Mr. Cannon for the Speakership. Well, we fancy, that's no more than his Democratic opponent will do.

An exchange declares that the circus will not be complete until Bill Barnes charters a special train and speaks from the rear platform. If he should go along behind that other car-platform curiosity, it is a safe bet that he woud have amazingly large sized crowds. The people at the railway stations are not looking for a statesman. They want to see a curiosity.

Thomas P. Gore, the blind United States Senator from Oklahoma, will speak at Chatham, Va., Sept. 19. That day will surely be a great day for Chatham. It should have a record-breaking number of visitors. Senator Gore is one of the most conspicuous men in public life. That a blind man should work himself to a place of such great power and prestige is indeed wonderful.

It is something unusual for the president and vice president of a country to die one right after the other. But that is what happened to the little republic of Chile. President Montt died in Europe and was succeeded by Vice President Albano, but in a few weeks after the death of the president, the acting president also died. The minister of justice is now the acting president. The unexpected and the unusual will always happen if you just give them time enough.

Out of fifty prominent men who entered the Waldorf hotel in New York in a given time the other night, nineteen were men who had been indicted. Among them were promoters of cotton, oil, bank, mine and land corners, combines and alleged frauds in violation of the Federal laws. It is said that Elihu Root when engaged in active practice in New York knew how to advise his clients in such a way that they could tread just on the border line of law violation and yet not overstep it. Plainly there are not many Elihu Roots or if there are, the promoters are not able to locate them.

If we were a coin collector and got such a reply as the following from the "answer editor" of the paper to which we subscribed we'd stop the paper in short order:

The quarters of 1854, 1857 and 1876 are worth 25 cents. The dollar note of 1896 is not quoted. None of your dimes are quoted. So of your half-dimes. The coin without date is not quoted and is valueless to collectors. The 3-cent piece is not wanted. None of your pennies are valuable.

The editor might have been considerably less cold-blooded if he had tried.

The Baltimore Sun discusses conservation in as sane and safe a manner as any paper we have seen. It says:

The Constitution must be conserved as well as coal lands. If it stands in the way of progress, there is a way to change it; but until it is changed in the manner prescribed in that instrument itself it should be held inviolate. The people are interested in progressive and constructive legislation and they have the power to secure it, and there can be no doubt that they will secure it. But they are just as vitally interested in protecting the political structure in which they live from unlawful change and demolition.

There is no safer plan of action than to make sure of being right before going ahead. There are law-making bodies for the purpose that their name indicates and in all things what those bodies prescribe in their given spheres should be strictly adhered to. This is the way to preserve order, system and peace. Any other way is to invite confusion, worse confounded. The Sun is doing a great public service in urging that every law whether it is popular or unpopular be observed to the letter and that the sanction of law be awaited for all undertakings of whatever nature.

THE ESCAPE

William Watson.

New York! a city like a chessboard made,
Whereon the multitudinous pawns are swayed
Neither by Knight nor puissant Queen,
And bow not unto Castle or King,
Yet hither and thither are moved as though they obeyed,
Half loath, some power half seen,
Some huge, voracious, hundred-headed thing,
Armed with a million tentacles, whereby
He hooks and holds his victims till they die.
There did we tarry, dearest! But one day
There came on us a longing to go forth,
No matter whither, so 't were far away!
Then from the snarl and bite of the sharp North
To Florida's sweet orange-flaming shore,
Through forests and savannahs vast we sped,
And found a sea so fair and strange, we said—
"We have but dreamed of splendor heretofore."
For all the sky-line was an emerald ring
Of such deep glow as balks imagining;
And all the tide within it, streak on streak,
Was one extravagant revel and freak
Of amber and amethyst, azure and smouldering red,
With every hue that is child of these
Dancing at noon on the fantastic seas.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

Boldenback Has Resigned.

Washington, Sept. 8.—William Boldenbeck, an assistant United States treasurer at Chicago, has resigned and will leave his office on September 17. Some time ago a shortage in the Chicago office was reimbursed by an appropriation of congress. It was said at the treasury that Boldenbeck's resignation had no connection with that incident but was of his own accord and on account of his age.

The train was en route from Seattle to Kansas City.

MRS. A. E. SMITH, OF MT. AIRY, DIES IN THIS CITY.

Remains Taken To Mt. Airy Yesterday —Funeral This Morning.

Mrs. A. E. Smith, of Mt. Airy, died yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the home of her father, Mr. J. A. J. Patterson, on Water street.

Mrs. Smith had been a sufferer from pellagra for two years though her physician did not know that the malady was pellagra when she was first taken. Everything known to medical and surgical science was done for her, including the operation of transfusion of blood from a well person. A few days ago her condition seemed much better and her relatives were greatly encouraged, but unfavorable symptoms soon set in and she sank steadily, suffering intensely during the concluding days of her illness. In the last few months she was treated by specialists in Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore and in St. Leo's Hospital in this city.

The remains were carried to Mt. Airy yesterday afternoon and the funeral will take place at 10 o'clock this morning in the Methodist church of that place of which she was a member.

Mrs. Smith is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. J. Patterson, also by nine brothers and sisters, including Mr. R. L. Patterson and Misses Mollie, Carrie and May Patterson, of this city. Her husband and three children, of whom the eldest is 14, also survive her.

Among the Greensboro people who accompanied the remains to Mt. Airy were Mr. R. L. Patterson, Misses Mollie and Carrie Patterson and Mr. J. H. Sparger.

Bankruptcy Case.

In bankruptcy court yesterday Judge Boyd signed an order adjudging S. C. Buchanan, of Glenville, Jackson county, a bankrupt on his own petition. The liabilities are about $1,200 and the assets nominal. The case was referred to Referee F. W. Thomas, at Asheville.

The Air Brake.

To forget the inventions of the hour is an impossibility. They are before one at every turn, and many of them contain potentialities vast and much discussed. For that very reason it is well occasionally to contemplate some invention of the past which works unremittingly and inconspicuously for the welfare of mankind. Consider the air brake. How many when they take a journey by rail ever take thought of the device which stands ready to insure safety from possible accidents? All are so used to sibilant noise below the cars that they never consider its portentousness. Yet by this application of the power of compressed air tens of thousands of lives have been preserved and railroad travel has been made more expeditious. All this is arrant truism; not a word of it but what has been said scores of times before. But we like to dwell upon the air brake as one of those typical inventions which are doing their work faithfully and humbly while recent creations get the glory and applause.—Collier's.

Hongkong the Luxurious.

Hongkong, with its luxurious hotels, its princely clubs, its rich and influential banks, housed in splendidly constructed and beautifully designed buildings; its shipyards and graving docks able to care for the largest vessels; its miles of warehouses bursting with wealth; its yellow sailed fleets laden with silks, tea, sugar and precious porcelains; its commerce almost as great as that of New York; its botanic gardens hung amid delightful villas overlooking a harbor that is a city in itself and that floats 10,000 sails; Hongkong, with its wonderful temples of ornate teak roofs, its idols of a hundred sects, its French cathedral, its forts, garrison and naval life, its Happy Valley race course—all at the end of white man's civilization. Supreme from the peak on which it rests, in well bred aloofness it looks askance at sordid Asia, whence it sprung.—W. J. Aylward in Harper's Magazine.

How "Thon" Would Work.

"Thon" is the word which has been suggested for use as an English pronoun of common gender, a luxury which the English language has thus far had the fortitude to forego. It was considered suitable for English because it came from the Greek. Its use may be illustrated as follows:

If a parent desires to spank thon's (his or her, as the case may be) child thon (he or she) should take thon (him, her or it) across thon's knee. Then thon should remove thon's slipper, and after explaining to the child the reprehensibility of thon's conduct thon should apply the slipper to that portion of thon's anatomy which from time immemorial has been dedicated to that purpose.

It may easily be seen from the above how "thon" effects great clarification.—Lippincott's.

In Praise of the Eskimos.

Commander Peary in the narrative describing his discovery of the north pole devotes a very long chapter to the Eskimos, with whom he has had intimate dealings for eighteen years. He tells us that though they are savages they are not savage; that though they are without government they are not lawless; that though they are uneducated they exhibit a remarkable degree of intelligence. He assures us that they have no religion, yet he describes them as destitute of vice and ready to share their last meal with the hungry. He thinks it would be impossible to Christianize them, but they already possess the cardinal graces of faith, hope and charity, for "without them they could never survive the six months' night and the other rigors of their home."

The Greatest Historian.

By common consent the greatest of all historians is Thucydides, the Greek contemporary of Pericles and author of the history of the Peloponnesian war. One of the greatest tributes that can be paid to him is that, according to the estimate of a very able critic, we have a more exact account of a long and eventful period by Thucydides than we have of any period in modern history, equally long and eventful, and yet all this is compressed into a single volume. For concise, vigorous and yet intense presentation Thucydides has never been equaled. He is easily the king of historians.—New York American.

It Did.

"Do you know anything, doctor," said Mrs. Finnikin, "that will put a little color into my cheeks? I am so dreadfully pale."

"Well, madam," replied Dr. Blunt, "perhaps if I tell you that you have a hole in your stocking about the size of a quarter it may have the desired effect."

What Gov. Killough, of Arkansas, Says After Visiting Every College in the East.

On August 10th, Mrs. A. B. Armstrong, of Arkansas, entered her son at the Bingham School, Mebane, N. C., and wrote President Gray as follows: "We had decided to send our son to you since last fall. At that time, Mr. Killough's father, (Ex Lieutenant Governor Killough) told us that he had visited every college in the East and he thought yours was the best he found. Mr. Gray, please do not take this as flattery, for it is the plain truth about your school.

Wishing you a good, prosperous year, I am,

Very respectfully,
MRS. A. B. ARMSTRONG.

JOHN ROBINSON'S SHOWS.

Now comes the cheerful circus press agent with his first aid to the children. The John Robinson Shows inaugurated their annual traveling season this year with the most costly, gorgeous and elaborate display ever seen under the enormous canvas.

The big shows have grown to such magnitude as to necessitate enlargement in every department. And this famous amusement institution is proud of its record.

The menagerie alone is nearly double its former capacity, for during the winter the old world has been scoured thoroughly for wild animals and strange beasts of every country, and now this attractive and highly educational department is complete in every particular. The cages, vans, chariots and tableaux cars are all new and especially attractive in wondrous architecture, conceded by all show men to be unequaled by any other firm, corporation, company or syndicate.

It has taken many years and several fortunes to place this department on such a lavish magnitude, to tickle the fancy and satisfy the mind of the grand street display from which no revenue is derived—only the gratification to please both young and old children—remember that what follows in the big canvas is more meritorious. In the main tent many new features will surprise and delight the beholder.

There is certainly no traveling exhibition in America, perhaps in the world, which presents entertainment so varied, so attractive and so multitudinous as do John Robinson's Ten Combined Great Shows. Since the days of Noah, a more complete menagerie has never been seen.

Every act in the monster program is a revelation to the people. The finest specimens of horse flesh in the world; the highest aerialists in the circus profession, all the champion riders, both male and female. The finest specimens of the cutest ponies in the world. The grandest specialties ever produced. The funniest clowns on earth are with the John Robinson Shows.

THE FATNESS OF HEALTH.

Samose Fills Out the Curves and Makes Thin People Fat.

Perfect health and good, solid beautiful flesh can only come through the use of Samose, the remarkable flesh-forming food.

This makes the thin and scrawny, plump and robust; it mixes with the food so that all the elements that make solid bonefirm muscle and good flesh are thoroughly assimilated and retained in the system.

Samose is not a drug or a stimulant; it is a scientific flesh-forming food that restores thin people to a normal condition of good healthy flesh.

These statements are confirmed by Howard Gardner's offer to refund the money to anyone buying and using Samose who does not gain in weight as promised.

Mrs. N. C. Weatherly Will Do a Strictly Cash Business.

After September 15, Mrs. Weatherly will discontinue the credit business and sell strictly for cash on delivery. This step will be of mutual benefit, for it is evident, that if no money is put out for stationery, postage, collectors per cent and no lost accounts, she can sell goods much less than any house running on the credit system. Her goods will be marked for cash and sold for cash only. Mrs. Weatherly wishes to take the opportunity to thank the ladies for their liberal patronage and solicit a continuance of the same under the new cash system.

JUSTICE IN CHINESE VILLAGE.

Placing Responsibility for an Aged Thief's Death.

Shanghai Mercury.

While in the country an event occurred which represents some legal aspects of village life.

A young man saw an old man stealing beans from his neighbor's garden. Village law required him to catch the thief, which he did, and he was turned over to the constable. He let him loose without punishment, and he went to his home in the village. There his wife and son, a trifling fellow, abused him for bringing disgrace on the family, and the old man hanged himself.

Then the son accused the young man of "persecuting" his father to death. this charge, according to Chinese ideas, was well made, and so it was proposed to compromise the matter by buying a coffin and paying the burial expenses of the thief, probably amounting to $20.

But a neighbor who is a Christian took the position that the young man was in the right, and there was no justice in calling on him and other neighbors to take out money to bury the man. The thief's son then hastened to the magistrate and made the charge that his father had been persecuted to death.

The magistrate came with quite a retinue to hold an inquest. He decided that the man had hanged himself. He gave the constable a beating of 30 blows because he got flurried in his august presence and contradicted himself in some of his answers. Then he rested the father of the young man and is keping him in prison. Now the case has assumed some proportions.

The man held as a prisoner will not be released for less than $100. The Christian who advised against a money compromise in the beginning is severely criticised, and the talk of the village is that "the church ought not to have meddled in the case at all," thus blaming the church on account of the action of one of its influential members. The case illustrates village life and ideas very correctly.

The Lash of a Fiend

would have been about as welcome to A. Copoer, of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It has most trouble some at night,' he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr. King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, la-grippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hayfever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces. 50c., $1.00. Trial bottle free. It's positively guaranteed by Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

A Typical Case.

"Is this country where you are living rather a lawless one."

"I'll give you my experience. I had not been in the place a day before I was held up."

"Neither. By my nurse."—Baltimore American.

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause breakdowns. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

Humane Expertness.

"What I believe in," said Mr. Erastus Pinkly, "is kindness to dumb animals."

"Yes," replies Miss Miami Brown; "I has hyud dat some folks kin lif' a chicken off the roos' so gentle an' tender dat he won't have his sleep disturbed ska'sely none."—Washington Star.

A Reliable Medicine—NOT A NARCOTIC

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." Holton Drug Co.

The trouble with the man who reaches the top is that he seems to think he is exempt from the laws of gravitation.

Your kidney trouble may be of long standing, it may be either acute or chronic, but whatever it is Foley's Kidney Remedy will aid you to get rid of it quickly and restore your natural health and vigor. TAFT IS PLEASED.

Friends Assure Him He is Holding His Own Against Roosevelt's Tactics.

Cleveland (Ohio) cor. New York Herald.

President Taft is returning to Beverly from the first trip he has taken outside of New England since Congress adjourned, with the assurance of his Western friends that he is winning new strength. Political candor and honesty of purpose are holding their own against the wild West show tactics of Mr. Roosevelt. If those who have talked intimately with the President on his trip to St. Paul are right the red-fire flare of Mr. Roosevelt's campaign trip is already waning and the President has gained by comparison.

The friends of the President in discussing Mr. Roosevelt's appeal to that section which he would like to make his own, analyze its results as short-lived. It is not to the solid business men of the country that the "new nationalism" has gone with the most effect. Gen. "Jacob S." Coxey gathered an army of the kind of men who are most prominent in the Roosevelt "shows," it was pointed out. Mr. Taft has been assured of the support of business men to his administration and of their hope that he will continue his dignified course.

The President rode eastward today well satisfied with the results of his 3,000 mile journey. Even those opposed to what they held to be his conservation policy were forced to praise his speech at St. Paul. Nor is it believed that his policy toward what is generally recognized as opposition to his renomination in 1912 will not be soon changed.

One of the correspondents who had been with the Roosevelt train left it to meet the President at St. Paul. Asked to sum up the situation, he said: "Roosevelt is drunk with adulation. No one can say what he will do. He is sure to go into the fight in New Yor

SKELETONS OF HORNED MEN.

Thirty Found in California With Projections Near Each Ear.

Los Angeles Dispatch.

Anthropologists of coast universities are endeavoring to discover to what age the prehistoric human bones that have recently been unearthed in Topango Canyon should be ascribed. The absence of the bones of women or children is considered proof that the skeletons are those of warriors.

Thirty complete skeletons have been unearthed. The foreheads are low and retreating, the jawbones prominent and the cheekbones high. The bones indicate that their owners were about the size of the average man of this day.

It is believed that they are the bones of old men, because the teeth are worn down to about what must have been near the line of the gums. Just above and in front of the ear each has a horn-like development three inches long.
